

C50

CONTRACT FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

In May 2009 Avon Protection received a contract to supply the C50 respirator system to the State of Illinois.

With distribution partner Pro-Tech, Avon will deliver C50 respirators devices for use by Illinois law enforcement and state agencies.

Ed Drellishak, President of Pro-Tech said,

"This award marks another significant step in the development of Avon's market leading position and demonstrates the superiority of the C50 product"

The C50 is Avon's next generation full face mask, offering users the highest levels of protection, whilst providing an outstanding field of vision and superior comfort.
